I adamantly opposed to any weakening of the do not call program.
How can you possibly change what the public wants.